<http://naplesbluebook.com> will be a social, business and organizational networking space for Naples, FL and surrounding areas.

Hello everybody on free.naplesplus.us!

Your webmaster always found something lacking on free.naplesplus.us -- social networking. There are almost 600 users on this service after not even a year of existence, but it is like a lot of websites: lacking the social component.

Consequently, I have opened up naplesbluebook.com as a social, business and organizational networking site for testing.

I hope it to be a companion to free.naplesplus.us - not a replacement - but rather having an emphasis on YOU (and your business or organization) rather than on "what's out here in Naples" which is what naplesplus is more about. My hope is that it works as a local myspace.com or like an old fashioned BBS.

Please take a look at naplesbluebook.com and give it a whirl and if you see anything funny or have suggestions, let me know at simplify@gmail.com - it will be a great benefit to the local area, just as naplesplus is.
