It seems to be one of the Laws of the Internet that every site of any importance must have an email address for the webmaster. Far be it from us to break the trend; so, if you have something vitally important to tell the folks who designed this place, send a message at the following address.

Webmaster: admin@free.naplesplus.us

Due to the large amount of e-mail that we get, we can NOT guarantee a response! This is especially true if your e-mail concerns issues we can't really help you with.
