Comments

BearBe very careful about this company. It was considered one of the best custom cabinet shops in Naples until it was purchased by a new owner in November of 2010. Do your due diligence before working with them. The new owner does now appreciate the high quality offered by the previous owners, using inferior material....also check the owner's background very carefully. I don't think you will want to work with him once you do. on Aug. 10 2011
