We are a Full Service Security Provider headquartered in Naples, Florida with over 20 years of experience and dedication. The key to our success is Communication.

We are a local Security Contract Company. We remain a medium size Security Company by choice to better service our clients. Our management support staff rival companies with double the number of Security Officers.

Preferred Security Providers, Inc. was incorporated in the State of Florida. Our Corporate Headquarters is located in Naples, Florida which is within the Southwest Florida area, allowing the President of the company and top level managers to be immediately available to answer client concerns and resolve problems as they occur.

We are innovative and aggressive in our attempts to obtain the goals we have defined, always seeking further knowledge, and always challenged. Our major goal is professionalism. Our greatest strength is that we are still fundamentally dedicated to reaching our major goal for every employee and every client.
