For Immediate Release

Naples, FL (December 2, 2009): Kudos to Worthington Country Club in Bonita Springs for getting 15 employees certified in CPR, First Aid and AED (Automated External Defibrillator) this week.

Brian Cannan originally contacted Collier CPR and Safety Training in Naples to set up a small class for Worthington County Club golf course maintenance employees.

By the time the class date was finalized, 15 employees had signed up. Not only Brian and his group attended but also General Manager Paul Mankowsky, their Golf Professional, Chef, food and beverage, office employees and more.

Frank Smith, owner of Collier CPR and Safety Training in Naples is an authorized provider for both American Heart Association and American Red Cross. He is passionate about taking away any fear for individuals to act in emergency situations. The company motto is What you learn today can save a life tomorrow.

Although Smith teaches ongoing BLS (Basic Life Support) classes required for healthcare professionals, his mission is to get as many everyday lay responders, like Worthington Country Club employees, trained in CPR and AED as possible.

Collier CPR and Safety Training can be reached at www.colliercpr.com or (239) 537-0495.
