August 24, 2015 (Label): Ben Carson, the Republican presidential candidate said that women getting pregnant from incest or rape should be able to access emergency room for _abortion pill_. This comment was in response to the anchor of _Your World with Neil Cavuto_ of Fox News Channel, when he asked Carson about his belief on abortion in instance of rape or incest on women.

Carson in his initial minutes of the interview was of the opinion that such females should take ru486 before the chance of developing fetus. The medicine is accounted as chemical pregnancy ending medicine by anti-abortion groups. The tablet can be used between 5 to 7 weeks of pregnancy, which kills unborn babies

This though was projected by the website of The National Right to Life. Susan. B. Anthony List group.also was against abortion pills, which the members of the community think as dangerous for the 4()lth of women. Cavuto was encouraged to ask Carson that if he believes in life at conception or not. Carson responded that he certainly believes in the fact once the 4() axof the fetus begins to tak7.
