InTroubleZone Productions has coined the phrase "RealityTV Advertising". A cutting-edge combination of a reality TV Show and an Infomercial. This fusion has proven to be very successful all over the country. National companies are using InTroubleZone's marketing concepts and are thriving despite these tough times.

Currently InTroubleZone Productions is producing five Reality TV shows in various stages of development which are being pitched to major networks. "V8 MuscleBikes" "Alligator Bait" "Dog House" Florida Adventure Quest" and "Older Than Dirt".

At this time, Chuck Ardezone is the co-founder, producer, and actor for the independent film company InTroubleZone Productions, InTroubleZone Productions produces short films, commercials, infomercials, movies and reality TV shows.

Chuck has been in the film and television business for over 20 years and started as a NYC Actor. Chuck's Television Credits include guest star roles on "Law & Order", "Law & Order SVU", "Law & Order Criminal Intent", "Third Watch", "As The World Turns", "One Life to Live", the NBC reality show, "Average Joe" and is currently starring in "Ace of Cars" a reality TV show in Atlanta that takes place on a car lot.
